

So far there has been a full village flyer drop (thanks to PC) and posters saying that;

Elford Cricket Club on Sunday 5th June from 3-9pm to celebrate our Queen's Platinum Jubilee. Bring your own gazebo, picnic and drinks to mark the event of The Big Jubilee Lunch. All cricket pitch area to be decorated with bunting. Other points;

- Dress to impress (optional)
- Bar and hot drinks (hot drinks van) from the pavilion from 3pm
- Sticky Fingers will bring their ice cream van with a Jubilee flavoured option.
- Take a selfie with 'The Queen' in her carriage
- Music all day- incl National Anthem
- Live music from The Forgery (recent cover tracks) from 5:30/6ish.
- Face painting, hair braiding and tuck shop by PTA.
- Also a teddy tombola
- Additionally Project Elite Dance will have a dance studio area for the kids with a mini performance at 4:30.

£10 for a pitch for up to 4 to cover costs and under 12's free- anything excess to go to Ukraine.

Firework finale at 9pm

73 plots accounted for so far

Registered the event with Eden Projects who are the official sponsors and we are on the map.

<https://shared.xmap.cloud/?map=96fbd4b-4e5d-495e-be44-edf0b3126f83>

We have asked a local resident with a drone to fly the village on the day to capture the event.

The Cricket Club been very accommodating of this event!

Ursula Middlemore